

Montana Office of Public Instruction
Linda McCulloch, Superintendent
In-state toll free 1-888-231-9393
www.opi.mt.gov/IndianEd

Table of Contents

SOCIAL STUDIES MODEL LESSON PLANS GRADE 5

Model Lessons

- Topic 1 Apply Steps of an Inquiry Process When Looking for Information About Montana Indian Tribes
  - Part 1 – Geography of the Montana Indian Reservations
  - Part II – Ancestral Lands and Places: The Sweetgrass Hills of Montana
- Topic 2 Quality of Information: Point of View and Bias
- Topic 3 Factors Causing Conflict Among Groups
  - Views About the Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery
- Topic 4 Identifying Stereotypes and Misconceptions
- Topic 5 The Purpose of Tribal Government
- Topic 6 Sovereignty: What Does it Mean for the Northern Cheyenne Tribe?
- Topic 7 Effects of Fur Trapping on Tribes
- Topic 8 Tribal Land Features and Tribal Connection to Land
- Topic 9 Learning About Montana Indian Oral Traditions
- Topic 10 Heroes, Elders, Historic Figures, Contemporary Tribal Leaders

Model Lessons are aligned with the Seven Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians, the Montana Social Studies Standards K-12, and the Montana Social Studies Grade Level Expectations K-12